Anura Lawson’s High School Abroad Program Rules and Regulations (For Parents)

1. Parents agree to provide all of the required documents on a timely basis to Lawson’s Homestay to facilitate the placement process of student exchange program.
2. The parents are responsible for making sure the student goes back to his or her home country after the completion of the exchange program. If the student doesn’t go back to his or her home country on time, the parents will be responsible for helping Lawson’s Homestay and the U.S Immigration and Naturalization Services in an investigation into the matter and Lawson’s Homestay will take legal action if necessary. The parents will be responsible for all expenses and legal responsibilities related to their son/or daughter.
3. The parents are responsible for making the student abide by all related rules and laws of the United States
4. The parents are responsible for making the students abide by the rules and regulations of the school including no drugs, no fighting, no skipping school, no drinking, etc.
5. For the safety of the students, we don’t allow the student to drive any vehicles while they are in the U.S. If any injuries are caused by activities related to driving, the parents will be responsible for all incurred expenses, injuries, and/or damages.
6. For the safety of the students, we strongly advise the student not to participate in high- risk activities and sports activities in the U.S. If the parents allow their children to participate in such kind of activities, they must sign on the form below to specify which activities they will permit their son/daughter to participate in. Any injuries related to these specified activities are the responsibility of the parents.
7. Student participation and membership on high school teams sports are not guaranteed.
8. Lawson’s Homesaty doe not provide medical insurance for any student. It is the parents sole responsibility to provide medical insurance for the duration of Lawson’s Homestay exchange program.
9. The student’s personal property is neither the responsibility of Lawson’s Homestay. The natural parents of the student are responsible for any damage, destruction of property, or injury to person(s) inflicted or caused by the student while participating in the program
10. It is highly recommended that students establish a bank account separate from their host family’s bank account.
11. The Parents authorize host family to host their child, provide assistance/guidance for his/her living and studying and sign required documents when there is medical emergency of the student. Student’s parents should keep in touch with the host family to help host family know and educate the student better.
12. Lawson’s Homestay discourages the parents or guardians from visiting their son/daughter while he or she is studying in the U.S.
